Cupboards and Rugs - What is that?

Well, this is different! Spirit and Kitsch presents a show of cupboards and rugs. Something out of the everyday. We are talking about “cupboards”: They are arty, different and quirky. There will be tall shelf cabinets, some with legs and some with feet and some with elements you would not expect. They are for your collections and whatever you have to display. There are two small cupboards to hold cd’s and most are great for book collections.

This show will primarily feature works by Alice Muhlback, Janet Locke and Mary Reynolds. Alice has created a few variations on her character themes that will ask you to display your own treasures. Janet will show you a whole new dimension of the shelf and is building her own cupboards which will include a coyote and an owl.

And Mary is creating works from old drawers, recycled wood and found objects.

Also featured are highly durable artiscally designed rugs by Santa Fe artist David Milliken.

They are beautiful on the wall or on the floor. A catalog of other designs will be available as well.

Please come for this unusual show. Opening Reception will be June 6, 2008 from 5:00 - 7:30 pm.
