

SPRING 2009

WHERE'S ALICE?

She has a show currently at the Mandible Café, in Mann Library, Cornell University called "uplifted". Then right about the middle of March, she will also have a show at The Fineline Bistro on West State Street. Rumor has it, that it's going to be a sneak peek of her "Alice in Wonderland show" that will be opening in May at the Kitschen Sink, 210 Elmira Road (formerly Spirit and Kitsch) .

Alice will be taking over the back gallery within the Kitschen Sink as a permanent installation of her work. Stay tuned for exact dates because you won't want to miss the Mad Hatter Tea Party.

In April The Farmers Market starts again and you can see Alice there on Sundays. Make sure you sign up for our mailing list! You can always check her blog– aliceartopia.blogspot.com

WHERE'S SPIRIT and KITSCH?

Well coming this June, there will be a joint show with Spirit and Kitsch artists Ben Marlan , Werner Sun and Alice Muhlback. We are still brainstorming the details but it will be at The Upstairs Gallery, second floor in Dewitt Mall.

Many of the Spirit and Kitsch artists work can still be found at 210 Elmira Road, in the Kitschen Sink, and at our satellite store within the Smart Monkey Café, also on Elmira Road.

There are plans for us to rally ourselves together and do something , but at the moment we are all spreading our wings ...so to speak... awaiting what happens next. The members of Spirit and Kitsch are a creative flock and we are always somewhere. The real question is, will we be in the Ithaca Festival parade ? Every year the answer is absolutely not. But then there we are marching in the parade. How does that happen? Oh well, thanks for reading the news.
